

Social Media Policy

Official Outlets

The TNM maintains profiles on the most used social networks and has non-maintained profiles on many others. Here are our primary social media outlets:

Facebook – facebook.com/texasnatmov

Twitter – twitter.com/texasnatmov

YouTube – youtube.com/texasnatmov

Instagram – instagram.com/texasnatmov

Other Outlets

The TNM also maintains special purpose accounts, pages, and profiles on these networks. When a new social media outlet comes on the scene, the policy of the TNM is to create a presence there but not maintain it until there is a definite trend toward the outlet becoming prominent or dominant. Some of these include:

MeWe - mewe.com/p/texasnationalistmovement

Gab - gab.com/texasnatmov

Gettr - gettr.com/user/texasnatmov

Twitch - twitch.tv/texasnatmov

General Guidelines for Social Media

When using social media accounts in your capacity as a TNM volunteer and/or leader, you must follow all Terms of Service for that outlet. You must also follow all applicable laws and regulations.

Do not create social media accounts, groups, or pages containing the name Texas Nationalist Movement, TNM, the TNM logo or otherwise indicating that they are affiliated with the organization. If you feel that you need another account, beyond those created for you by the TNM, make a request to the Director of Communications or a member of the Executive Leadership Team.

The only social media outlet on which we create events is Facebook. These are created by the TNM social media manager for the main TNM page: <https://www.facebook.com/texasnatmov/events/> You may share these events on Facebook. Other events may not be created containing the name Texas Nationalist Movement, TNM, the TNM logo or otherwise indicating that they are affiliated with the organization. On all other social media outlets to share an event this should only be done by sharing the official event listing on the TNM website: tnm.me/events

Do not spread misinformation on social media. Disseminating unverified, false, or misleading information under the banner of the TNM damages the credibility of the organization.

A Note About Your Personal Profiles

There is nothing hidden or temporary on the internet. That is especially true on social media. If your personal profile is accessible to others and is readily identifiable as belonging to you and you are identifiable as a leader in the Texas Nationalist Movement, then the entire organization will be judged by anything you post on social media. Therefore, if you post anything on your personal profile that is contrary to our mission, principles, or policies you are subject to reprimand.
